About MyFintech Week 2025

MyFintech Week 2025 offers a dynamic platform for exploring the future of finance, uniting global and regional thought leaders, policymakers, and innovators across four impactful days. From keynote sessions to hands-on workshops and innovation showcases, the event dives into critical themes such as AI in banking, cross-border payments, open finance, financial fraud prevention, and digital assets.

With opportunities to connect, collaborate, and co-create solutions—including at the FiNVERSE Hackathon and Fintech Frontier 50 Awards—MyFW 2025 is where bold ideas and meaningful partnerships converge to drive the next chapter of digital finance.

Participants will gain practical insights into emerging technologies like generative AI and blockchain, while engaging in discussions that shape the evolving financial landscape.
